“I’m transgender, and the intentions of this regime towards transgender people are very clear: genocide.”

Jack “Ziz” LaSota was arraigned in federal court today in Baltimore after being indicted in June for being a fugitive in possession of firearms and ammunition. LaSota, a man who identifies as a woman, is the leader of the so-called “Zizian” trans death cult linked to eight deaths.

LaSota’s defense attorney, Gary Proctor, had recently filed a motion for a speedy trial and castigated the federal government for “deadnaming” LaSota and using male pronouns in documents and a press release.

MOTION FOR SPEEDY TRIAL

Defendant, Ziz LaSota ("Ms. LaSota")[1], by and through undersigned counsel pursuant to the Sixth Amendment, and 18 U.S.C. § 3161 et seq. hereby moves this Honorable Court for a Speedy Trial. In support of this Motion, Ms. LaSota states as follows:

1. The Government charged Ms. LaSota by Indictment on June 18, 2025. ECF 1. On August 6, 2025 the undersigned was appointed. ECF 2. Since then, nothing has happened. Ms. LaSota has not had an initial appearance. This is despite the fact that the Government has, at all times, known where to find Ms. LaSota. She has been, and continues to be, incarcerated at the Allegany County Detention Center. Inmates are routinely transported from Allegany to the United States District Court for the District of Maryland for Court appearances.

2. Title 18 U.S.C. 3161(c)(1) states that:

> In any case in which a plea of not guilty is entered, the trial of a defendant charged in an information or indictment with the commission of an offense shall commence within seventy days from the filing date (and making public) of the

[1] In the indictment the Government uses Defendant's "deadname" of Jack LaSota. See https://www.usatoday.com/story/news/2024/03/11/what-is-deadnaming/72570856007/. The Government also doubles down on offensively labeling Ms. LaSota by using male pronouns such as "he was a fugitive from justice." It is well known, and widely reported, that Ms. LaSota is transgender.

Jack LaSota's lawyer chastised the U.S. government for 'deadnaming' his trans client

At the arraignment on Monday, LaSota, who was shackled at the feet, refused to stand for the judge and stated that he was a victim of trans genocide by the Trump administration.

"Your government is currently going around scooping up brown people and disappearing them," he said, repeating accusations from left-wing activists.

He mocked U.S. Magistrate Judge Douglas R. Miller as he was being questioned, accusing the judge of being part of an "organized crime ring" involved in "slavery."

When the court clerk asked him to state his name for the official court record, LaSota said his name was "Justice" and that his age was "Timeless." Asked when he was born, LaSota stated: "I have been born many times."

LaSota's accusation of a U.S. regime-sponsored "trans genocide" mirrors similar courtroom outbursts in Solano County, Calif. by Zizian member, Alexander Leatham. Leatham and Zizian co-defendant, "Suri Dao" (Tessa Berns), have been charged with murder, attempted murder, inflicting great bodily injury, escape and other crimes.

LaSota and two fellow Zizian cult members were arrested in western Maryland in February following weeks of a manhunt after members of the trans cult allegedly killed an elderly man in California and a U.S. Border Patrol agent in northern Vermont in January.

LaSota has an open felony case in California from 2019 and another criminal case in Pennsylvania from 2022 related to a double-homicide investigation obstruction. He faked his death in 2022 and went on the run until he was apprehended earlier this year.
